Experience

2023– TELEFÓNICA | FON: full stack developer, Madrid.

www.movistarplus.es: Streaming near real-time web application.

Stack: React, TypeScript, Node.js, GraphQL, HLS/DASH.

- Development of multilingual web and backend BFF applications for European and American markets with 1M+ concurrent playbacks.
- Contributed to libraries, including Google's Shaka-player.
- Refactored several functionalities and their caching systems to improve latency, helping other teams working with different devices replicate our success in their implementations.
- Introduced types to a Node.js codebase (TypeScript) as well as testing best practices.
- Currently integrating a multilingual international streaming service into Movistar Plus+, involving a complete platform redesign, merging the business logic of both services, and working transversally across engineering, design, and product teams.

2019–2022 THRIVE MARKET | DISTILLERY: full stack developer.

Moscow (RU) - Los Angeles (US).

www.thrivemarket.com: e-commerce competing with Amazon Fresh in US market.

Stack: TypeScript, React, Cypress, Rust.

- Synchronization with cross-functional teams across different time zones (US - CEE/CIS).
- Refactored web client to Next.js by writing full suite of E2E tests with Cypress beforehand to support the 18-month migration process.
- Implemented new modules related to different payment systems.
- A/B testing and experimentation with Amplitude.
- Managed the cleanup, shutdown, and replacement of several legacy sites and endpoints, ensuring that all related infrastructure and redirections were addressed.

2017–2019 ASTROSHOCK: full stack developer, Moscow (RU).

Stack: React, Backbone, Django (Python). Development of web client, back office for content management and API.
